FACULTY ASSOCIATION OF CALIFORNIA COMMUNITY COLLEGES ENDORSES LAIRD FOR STATE SENATE

SACRAMENTO, CA – John Laird, who is running for State Senate District 17, today announced he has been endorsed by the Faculty Association of California Community Colleges (FACCC), which represents 9,000 members and serves as the professional membership association for California Community College faculty across California’s 72 districts and 114 colleges.

"FACCC enthusiastically endorses John Laird for State Senate because he is a champion for community college faculty, understands higher education policy and deeply appreciates the essential role faculty play in the success of our students," said Evan Hawkins, Executive Director of FACCC. "John’s background and qualifications are a strong match for service in the State Senate, including being educated in California public schools from elementary school through college, experience as a community college trustee and two terms in the State Assembly, during which he fought hard for community college faculty."
