SEIU CALIFORNIA ENDORSES LAIRD FOR STATE SENATE

SACRAMENTO, CA – John Laird, candidate for State Senate, today announced he has been endorsed by SEIU California, a political voice whose mission is to set statewide priorities and exercise power to increase economic fairness for working people, ensure high quality services and create a well-funded, equitable, just and prosperous California.

"John Laird's long history of skilled leadership and his advocacy for the needs of California's working families are exactly what we need in the State Senate," said Riko Mendez, Chief Elected Officer of SEIU Local 521. "We know John will continue to fight for the issues SEIU cares about, and we are excited to endorse him."

SEIU local unions in California are made up of over 700,000 nurses, healthcare workers, janitors, social workers, security officers, in-home caregivers, school and university employees, court workers, and city, county and state employees. For more information, visit <https://seiuca.org/>.
