SAN LUIS OBISPO MAYOR, VICE MAYOR & CITY COUNCIL ENDORSE LAIRD FOR SENATE

SAN LUIS OBISPO, CA – John Laird, candidate for State Senate, today announced endorsements by San Luis Obispo Mayor Heidi Harmon, Vice Mayor Andy Pease and Councilmembers Carlyn Christianson, Aaron Gomez and Erica Stewart.

"John Laird really understands the big picture in California, especially in terms of issues related to the environment, education, the economy and housing," said Harmon. "He also understands local government and the needs of individual community members, having been a mayor and city councilmember himself. We need him in Sacramento representing our needs and the local perspective."

"I've been meeting with elected officials throughout San Luis Obispo County, hearing first-hand about their unique challenges in addressing quality of life and delivery of services. As State Senator, I will work hard to make sure that these local voices are represented in what I do," said Laird. "I am honored to have earned the support of San Luis Obispo's mayor, vice mayor and city councilmembers."

Today's endorsements join a growing list of recently announced legislators and statewide officials including:

State Insurance Commissioner Ricardo Lara
State Treasurer Fiona Ma
State Controller Betty Yee
Rep. Salud Carbajal
Rep. Anna Eshoo
Rep. Zoe Lofgren

Rep. Jimmy Panetta
Former Rep. Lois Capps
Former Rep. Sam Farr
Assemblymember Ash Kalra
Assemblymember Robert Rivas
Assemblymember Mark Stone
