LAIRD ENDORSED BY NORTHERN CALIFORNIA CARPENTERS REGIONAL COUNCIL

SANTA CRUZ, CA – John Laird, who is running for State Senate District 17, today announced he has been endorsed by the Northern California Carpenters Regional Council (NCCRC), which is dedicated to improving the California building and construction trades industry.

“The Northern California Carpenters Regional Council plays a critical part as we tackle California’s housing crisis. But their role extends well beyond that,” said Laird. “Partnership with the NCCRC is essential in addressing workforce development in California’s ever-changing economy.”

About NCCRC

The NCCRC strives to organize and improve working conditions and raise the standard of living on behalf of all workers. With employers, contractors, and subcontractors, NCCRC seeks to build partnerships by providing stability through a workforce that is motivated and skilled, producing quality work in a safe manner. NCCRC achieves its mission throughout Northern California by the daily effort of its members producing quality work on the job and with a responsible and responsive staff of Field Representatives and Organizers dedicated to the task.
