LAIRD SWEEPS ENDORSEMENTS OF ALL MONTEREY COUNTY MAYORS IN THE 17TH SENATE DISTRICT

MONTEREY, CA – John Laird, candidate for State Senate, today announced endorsements by all the mayors who represent the cities in Monterey County that are within the 17th State Senate District including Marina Mayor Bruce Delgado, Sand City Mayor Mary Ann Carbone, Del Rey Oaks Mayor Alison Kerr, Seaside Mayor Ian Oglesby, Pacific Grove Mayor Bill Peake, Carmel Mayor Dave Potter and Monterey Mayor Clyde Roberson. Laird is running to succeed Senator Bill Monning (D-Carmel), who will be termed out in 2020. The primary will be held in March 2020, followed by the general election in November. The filing period closes at the end of 2019.

“I’ve known John Laird for many years and I know he will stand up and fight in the State Senate for our local communities,” said Mayor Delgado. “John’s knowledge of the critical issues we face and his ability to find solutions are exactly what we need. I’m proud to support John for State Senate.”

“As a candidate for State Senate, John Laird is the complete package,” said Mayor Roberson. “A former mayor himself, John understands what local communities need. He also understands better than most how our state works, with experience as an Assemblymember and as California Secretary for Natural Resources. He has put in the time and knows exactly how to get things done. He is the perfect person to be our next senator. Let’s send him to Sacramento.”
