LAIRD ENDORSED BY CITY COUNCILMEMBERS FROM CARMEL, MARINA, MONTEREY, PACIFIC GROVE AND SEASIDE

MONTEREY, CA – John Laird, candidate for California State Senate representing District 17, today announced he has been endorsed by city councilmembers serving five cities in Monterey County, including:

Jeff Baron, Carmel City Councilmember
Adam Urrutia, Marina City Councilmember
Alan Haffa, Monterey City Councilmember
Tyller Williamson, Monterey City Councilmember
Robert Huitt, Pacific Grove Mayor Pro Tem
Jenny McAdams, Pacific Grove City Councilmember
Amy Tomlinson, Pacific Grove City Councilmember
Jason Campbell, Seaside City Councilmember
Jon Wizard, Seaside City Councilmember

"Monterey's future depends on a mix of tourism, healthy oceans and vibrant public education. John Laird, serving as a state legislator and California's Secretary for Natural Resources, has been at the forefront of state policy on each," said Councilmember Williamson. "We need him in Sacramento as our State Senator."

Today's announcement builds on previously announced Monterey County endorsements including County Supervisors Mary Adams, Jane Parker and John Phillips, as well as the mayors of every Monterey County city in the 17th Senate District, including Carmel Mayor Dave Potter, Del Rey Oaks Mayor Alison Kerr, Marina Mayor Bruce Delgado, Monterey Mayor Clyde Roberson, Pacific Grove Mayor Bill Peake, Sand City Mayor Mary Ann Carbone and Seaside Mayor Ian Oglesby.
